

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA (UVA) PARENTS ADVISORY ASSOCIATION OF THE OFFICE OF AFRICAN AMERICAN AFFAIRS (OAAA) NORTHERN VIRGINIA/DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA/MARYLAND CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION (2020)

The Office of African American Affairs Parents Advisory Association (OAAA PAA) of NOVA/DC/MD was established to support the UVA OAAA in an effort to develop and sustain programs that provide opportunities, resources, and a support system for African American students at the University of Virginia (UVA).

Our objective is to assist in sustaining OAAA programs that optimize the college experience and promote academic excellence. We are committed to ensuring African-American students thrive academically and achieve high graduation rates.

The UVA OAAA PAA of NOVA/DC/MD makes an impact on student life at the University of Virginia by:

- Providing financial support
- Addressing diversity issues at the University of Virginia
- Supporting recruitment and retention
- Promoting the programs and events sponsored by the Office of African-American Affairs (OAAA)

Parents and friends are encouraged to join the PAA and volunteer to work with the different committees ensuring the success of the PAA's future programs and efforts. For further information concerning the OAAA PAA, visit the PAA and NOVA/DC/MD chapter pages on the OAAA website.

PART II: Essay Question:

In 2020, the world experienced its worst pandemic in more than a century and first in the information age. As governments across the world grapple with how to handle the health, economic, and societal consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic, universities are divided as to their role coming out of this crisis. In 400 words or less, describe what the University of Virginia can and should do to address the needs and prepare its students to help build (and lead) a more resilient society post-COVID-19.
