QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“Whatever we believe about ourselves and our ability comes true for us.”
-- Susan L. Taylor

SPOTLIGHT ON STUDENT ACHIEVEMENTS

Congratulations to Aryn Frazier for receiving a 2016 Rhodes Scholarship to study at the University of Oxford, England, where she will pursue a master of philosophy degree in comparative politics.

Aryn Frazier is a fourth-year politics honors and African-American studies major student from Laurel, Maryland. She is a Lawn resident, a Thomas J. and Hillary D. Baltimore Jefferson Scholar, and an Echols Scholar. While at UVa, Aryn has been involved in several efforts, including being an OAAA Peer Advisor, past President and Political Action Chair of the Black Student Alliance, Senior Resident and Resident Advisor for Housing and Residence Life, and a member of the Black Voices Gospel Choir. Currently, she is a member of the Raven Society and the Class of 2017 Trustees.

While on Grounds, Aryn has concentrated on issues of race and justice. At Oxford, she hopes to study "how people come to form, and then act on, their political ideologies...and to be better able to bridge the communication gap in politics and organizing."

You can nominate an exceptional student (not yourself) to be featured in the Spotlight on Student Achievements. Please send your nominations to Dean Patrice Grimes (pgrimes@virginia.edu) by Thursday at 12 noon for an upcoming OAAA edition.

December 05, 1955 - Rosa Parks Convicted for Refusing to Give Up Her Seat; Bus Boycott Begins

Rosa Parks had refused to give up her seat to a white person on a segregated Montgomery, Alabama, bus on December 1, 1955. On this day, she was convicted of violating Alabama’s racial segregation law. The day also marked the beginning of a boycott of the Montgomery buses by the African-American community. The Montgomery Bus boycott became one of the iconic events of the Civil Rights Movement and was finally settled by the Supreme Court on December 17, 1956. The Court ordered Alabama to desegregate the buses three days later. Visit: http://todayinchl.com/?event=rosa-parks-convicted-for-refusing-to-give-up-her-seat to learn more.

December 10, 1950 - Ralph J. Bunche First African-American to Win Nobel Peace Prize

Ralph J. Bunche was the first African-American to win the Nobel Peace Prize. He won the prize for his efforts in mediating a settlement in Palestine in the 1940s, while working in various capacities for the United Nations. He was involved in the initial planning for the creation of the United Nations (UN) in 1944 and worked for the UN for 25 years. Hoos in the Office: Volunteer in the Admissions Office
Hoos in the Office, under the Virginia Ambassadors, allows current students to volunteer in Peabody Hall, connecting them with prospective students and parents. Duties include checking in students and parents in the morning and answering student-life questions in the afternoons. This is a very relaxed and fun commitment that has rewarding results. Email gwm5xe@virginia.edu to learn more.

Sophomore (Second Year) Diversity Leaders Internship
Our Sophomore Diversity Leaders Internship program (SDLi) provides a highly select group of Black/African American and/or Hispanic/Latino undergraduate students’ first-hand experience with consulting at McKinsey & Company. Candidates who are currently college sophomores at U.S. universities are eligible to apply. Visit: http://www.mckinsey.com/careers/students/sophomore-diversity-leaders-internship to learn more.

Black Sci-Fi Collective: Who More Sci-Fi Than Us?
Eight to ten students of color who are interested in Black sci-fi, Afrofuturism, or race and technology, are wanted to work; those who have an interest in the performing, literary, and/or visual arts should contact Njelle Hamilton (nwh96@virginia.edu)

UNLEASH – on Grounds
Wondering how to get involved with research on Grounds? UNLEASH is a program that matches UVA undergraduate students with research opportunities sponsored by UVA faculty, hence the title: Undergraduate Novel Learning Experience and Scientific Hands-on or UNLEASH. Visit: https://med.virginia.edu/faculty/unleash-undergraduate-research-program/ to learn more.
The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King received the Nobel Peace Prize on this day. His acceptance speech was entitled, “The Quest for Peace and Justice.” King was the second African-American to win the Nobel Peace Prize. The first was Ralph Bunche, who received the award on December 10, 1950. Just as King was receiving this international honor, the FBI was escalating a vendetta against him. It had already decided on a secret and vicious campaign to “neutralize” King as a civil rights leader.

Jefferson School African American Heritage Center Docents needed – in downtown C’ville
