OAAA ANNOUNCEMENTS & SERVICES

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Where there is no vision, there is no hope."

- George Washington Carver

SPOTLIGHT ON STUDENT ACHIEVEMENTS

Kyndia Riley is a Second year student from Heathsville, Virginia and is enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences. As a public speaker and activist, she has traveled and spoken nationally at prestigious law universities -- Yale, Stanford, and Vanderbilt -- to advocate for the rights of women and girls who are, or have been, incarcerated. She works with criminal justice reform groups to highlight the problems surrounding mass incarceration, societal reintegration and all effects of these issues on the families of those incarcerated. On Grounds, Kyndia is a student worker at OAAA and has been very supportive of transfer students seeking help. After graduation, she plans to teach and mentor younger children who have not had the access to resources for quality care and a good education. In January 2017, Kyndia was featured in a CBS 19 Newsplex (Charlottesville, VA) television story by reporter Jasmin Caldwell. Watch the video about Kyndia's story here.

You can nominate an exceptional student (not yourself) to be featured in the Spotlight on Student Achievements. Please send your nominations to Dean Patrice Grimes (pggrimes@virginia.edu) by Thursday at 12 noon for an upcoming OAAA edition.

QUOTE'S CORNER: George Washington Carver

George W. Carver

George Washington Carver was an African-American educator and agricultural researcher who grew up in Missouri. He headed the agricultural department and a research laboratory at Booker T. Washington's all-black Tuskegee Institute (AL) for nearly 20 years.

His early work, especially on the uses of the peanut, enriched the lives of countless farmers and sharecroppers. His many patents and innovations in farming production and management were useful and a symbol of African-American achievement. He is buried on the campus of Tuskegee University, near Booker T. Washington.

Orphée Noir

In the tradition of Black Newspapers, Orphée Noir has emerged as a necessary voice of the Black community at UVA and beyond. It is particularly important right now! This periodical is shaped by students to represent their experience in a unique and fitting way. The hope is to capture what it means to be Black on Grounds and to consider this meaning within the larger context of Blackness. Read online at: www.orpheenoir.com

OPPORTUNITIES WITH DEADLINES

United Kingdom Fellows Program 2017

Application Deadline: Monday, January 16th @ 12 Noon

UVA Interviews: TBD between January 23rd – 27th (An interview is not guaranteed)

The UK Fellows Program allows graduating U.Va. students the opportunity to teach and live abroad in a UK boarding school for one year. Fellows participate fully by assisting with classes, sport, and residence life. The best candidates are mature, responsible individuals who are eager to get involved. Teaching experience, formal or informal is helpful but not required. The ability to help coach a sport, even if it's not your greatest strength, is a plus. For more information about how to apply contact: Andrus Ashoo at aga3j@virginia.edu and visit: <http://www.virginia.edu/cue/ukfellows.html>
